The background of the slide is a photograph of a young girl with dark hair, smiling and holding up a drawing of a pink, heart-shaped creature. She is wearing a white t-shirt with the word "PRINCESS" printed on it. Behind her is a wall covered in various children's drawings and artwork, including one that says "Mama" and another that says "Mama". The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent purple filter.

Bringing the Joy and Healing Power of Art to Children in hospitals

2025 Annual Review

WE ENVISION A WORLD FREE OF
SUFFERING FROM CANCER AND ITS EFFECTS.

WE STAND AT THE INTERSECTION OF
ART, SCIENCE, AND COMPASSION TO HELP CHILDREN DEFEAT ILLNESS.

2025 was an incredible year!

We brought the healing power of art to 5,158 children and their families.

We received inspiring responses from the hospitals we serve and the volunteers on our team.

We strengthened our operations and collaborated with organizations for community involvement.

CHILDHOOD CANCER

AN ALL TOO COMMON DISEASE

Every year an estimated 15,780 children between birth and 19 years of age are diagnosed with cancer.

Approximately 1 in 285 children in the U.S. will be diagnosed with cancer before their 20th birthday.

Cancer isn't the only threat to a child's health. That is one of the reasons our program includes all children battling for their health due to a serious illness.

THE INSPIRATION BEHIND CREATIONS FOR CURES

"I DIDN'T EXPECT ART TO HELP ME LIKE IT DID DURING
MY FIGHT WITH CANCER. IT BROUGHT ME JOY AND HELPED ME BUILD
CONFIDENCE, AT A TIME I NEEDED IT THE MOST."

Renée Dieffenderfer - Creations for Cures Founder

I spent a lot of time thinking about what I wanted to do, and in one moment it clicked. Make it big, so big it scares me.

One day I received a watercolor kit my mom and sister sent me in the mail. I was going through chemo and burning out on watching TV. It was those moments of painting, I felt something. I felt empowered, productive and happy.

During chemo I thought a lot about how I wanted to give back. I wanted to create something that would outlive me. I wanted to help people come back from tragedy with confidence. I wanted people to know that creativity, self-expression, and experiencing joy, heals. I wanted to inspire and empower with kindness. I knew I wanted to bring what I saw in art to others.

I was 28 years old when I was diagnosed with Hodgkin's Lymphoma, which is a cancer commonly diagnosed in children. I imagined kids going through what I went through. I felt the fear, the loneliness, the curiosity, and the uncontrollable emotions before, during, and after every treatment. I thought about their parents, their siblings and friends, I envisioned what we are doing today, bringing the healing power of art to children so they can be kids, while they are in the hospital.

BRINGING ART TO KIDS THROUGH OUR ART PROGRAM

ART PROGRAM

The Creations for Cures Art Program gives kids time to get creative and have a moment of escape during the challenges they face while receiving treatments in the hospital, stuck in a hospital bed, or away from the comforts of home.

Volunteers host fun and engaging art projects for the kids and their families.

Our goal is to reach as many kids and their families as possible with the Art Program. We continue to expand to hospitals across the country, aiding children in the fight to defeat childhood cancer and serious illness.

HOW WE DELIVER OUR MISSION!

STEP ONE!

CFC Volunteers create custom art projects, each month. They film videos for the Virtual Art Hour and they work with children's hospitals to stream Art Hour to the patient's rooms.

HOW WE DELIVER OUR MISSION!

STEP TWO!

Next, community sponsors or the CFC Team builds a custom quantity of art kits for every hospital and Ronald McDonald House we serve!

HOW WE DELIVER OUR MISSION!

STEP THREE!

The CFC Art Team visits the hospital and Ronald McDonald Home and does art with children and their families, in person...

HOW WE DELIVER OUR MISSION!

STEP FOUR!

Or we deliver Art Hour Virtually!

ART KITS

Our art kits inspire creativity and empower children to express themselves. They are filled with a variety of supplies, including different projects every month.

CREATIVITY AND JOY SHARED ACROSS THE COUNTRY

Since the launch of the Art Kit program in 2016, Creations for Cures has sent over 17,856 art kits to children all over the country.

"Volunteers are selfless, caring, empathetic, and giving people who commit and follow through on actions that directly impact the well being of others."

RENÉE DIEFFENDERFFER

TEAM CFC

"BEING A VOLUNTEER FOR CREATIONS FOR CURES HAS BEEN SUCH A FULFILLING EXPERIENCE. DOING ART WITH THESE SMALL BUT TOUGH WARRIORS IS INSPIRATIONAL. THEIR CREATIVITY, THEIR ENERGY, THEIR POSITIVE ATTITUDES ALL WHILE FIGHTING THIS HORRIBLE DISEASE GIVES ME HOPE FOR THE FUTURE. IT'S BEEN SO REWARDING AND A GOOD REMINDER FOR ME OF HOW BLESSED I AM! I LOOK FORWARD TO MANY MORE YEARS VOLUNTEERING AND HELPING CREATIONS FOR CURES MAKE THE WORLD BEAUTIFUL WITH ART."
-CFC VOLUNTEER, EILEEN KUFFNER
